SOME LIKE IT HOT, OR COLD, OR SWEET OR SAVORY:
Marion Crepes opens its second Hawaii location at Waikiki Yokocho

(Honolulu, HI)—Crêpes are, without question, quintessentially very French. But the colorful, artfully crafted sweet and savory crêpes are without a doubt, a Japanese contribution. Marion Crepes specifically pioneered this style of Japanese crêpe in 1976. This long-standing crêpe revolutionary has popped up all around Japan with over 80 locations, and now the long-awaited crepe shop has opened in Waikiki Yokocho on Thursday, June 1, 2017.

Marion Crepes in Waikiki Yokocho offers over 40 different freshly-made menu options in both sweet and savory flavors. What makes Marion Crepes special? Three things make the crêpe offerings worth waiting in line for--the secret original dough, made-to-order crêpes, and the vast selection of fillings.

Marion Crepes gained its fame through its crêpe dough which is soft and chewy on the inside while its surface is crispy and fragrant. The secret original recipe blends over ten ingredients and has remained unchanged since its founding. Imagine this famous crêpe wrapped around your favorite ingredients—perhaps as a Strawberry & Banana Chocolate Sundae ($9) or, with Chicken Breast & Cheese with a homemade basil sauce ($9.50). The Waikiki Special also include sweet treats highlighting local favorites such as the Acai Sorbet & Fruits crêpe ($12.50).
