TERRACE RENEWAL: Sakura Terrace Unveils New Menu

(Honolulu, HI)— They say all good things come in threes and with the completion of a renewed dining room and sparkling new sushi counter to match comes the inevitable main menu revamp at Sakura Terrace.

The new menu features a customizable teishoku (dinner set) where customers are free to select a combination of any two ala carté menu items. The teishoku includes a side dish, rice, miso soup, house salad, and pickles.

“Over the past six years, Sakura Terrace has been loved as a Japanese restaurant—not just for the food and for the value of our high-quality menu,” says Sakura Terrace Manager, Daisuke Arai. “We felt that it’s important to continue to deliver this value to our loyal customers while bringing about new and exciting changes such as our new sushi counter and a new happy hour. We look forward to welcoming guests to try our menu along with our Japanese sake and shochu—a rare lineup we’ve imported from Japan.”

While the restaurant had long kept to the Japanese custom of closing on Monday, Sakura Terrace will now be open seven days a week starting Monday, October 16. The daily Happy Hour is from 7:30 – 9:00 PM, and is currently available to enjoy.

About Sakura Terrace

Sakura Terrace has been a fixture on South King Street’s “Gourmet Street” since 2012. Popular among locals, this Japanese restaurant is ideal persnickety gourmands looking for casual dining in a laid-back atmosphere.

The menu boasts fresh ingredients and an authentic Japanese lineup including sashimi and vegetable tempura, donburi, unagi and Wagyu Beef. The recently opened sushi bar also features a gorgeous array of traditional and original sushi.
